Dear Mo Stewart,

Thank you for your correspondence dated 18 January to the Chief Secretary to the Treasury. As it is not practical for ministers to respond personally to all the correspondence they receive, I have been asked to reply.

You have shared your concern that you have been unable to make contact with HM Treasury. The Treasury encourages all correspondence via the contact form on the GOV.UK website, which can then be directed as applicable. The contact form is available online at:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/hm-treasury>.

You have also referred to your earlier correspondence of 27 November. I can confirm that your letter was transferred to the Department for Work and Pensions for a reply, as the department responsible for this policy area.

More details on Government's policies outside the Treasury's areas of responsibility are available from the GOV.UK website, at:

Thank you for taking the time to make us aware of your concerns.

Yours sincerely,

Correspondence & Information Rights Team
